

THE BALLAD OF JOHN MEADER

By
Tony P.

This ballad is of John Meader.
He travels with stars in his van.
John meets with kids of all ages from near and from far.
They all know him as "Starman".

He is called this because he has a Planetarium.
He has done the ABC's of Space.
John doesn't come often but he sure is fun.
But you always meet him face to face.

The planetarium is very large.
It's like a giant mushroom.
It has a tube going into it.
It takes up the whole room.

His van is red.
His coat is too.
John knows the P family.
The planetarium is blue.

He has gone to Turner and China too.
John finds joy when people learn.
He surprises you a lot too
You will like it at every turn.

The show is really out of this world.
You'll find joy too.
Just like John does.
Instead of learning about the deep blue.

You'll enjoy it 'til it's over.
You'll moan when it's done and ask for more.
You might not get more but he might do it just for you.
Since you asked for more you could yell encore, encore.

You'll get your shoes back on.
Most will forget it.
Others might not because of facts.
Some might call the fact a tidbit.
